

Macy Gray, When I See You

It's been three days since I screamed and hung up on you
And all I wanted was to hold you tight
I'm sorry baby never meant to be mean to you
And I hope you call me back tonight

You're hesitating 'cause you don't want another fight
I promise baby it'll be all right

Truth is all I'm doing is missing you
Thinking about when I'm gonna see you

Hey baby when I see you
I'm gonna love you all over the place
Hey baby when I see you
I'm gonna kiss you all over your face

It's been three days since you screamed and hung up on me
And all you wanted was to hold me tight
Now you're calling to say hey and make up with me
But I think I need a little more time
I'm hesitating 'cause I don't want another fight
And I want our love to be all right

Truth is all I'm doing is missing you
Thinking about when I'm gonna see you

Hey baby when I see you
I'm gonna love you all over the place
Hey baby when I see you
I'm gonna kiss you all over your face
