

Mad At The World, Chance of Luck

(No luck there)
(Go an make some money)
(Make some money)

Mystery game, is that what we play?
You get a new turn every day
Nobody loses, nobody wins
You're taking your chances just to begin

Chance of luck, I need you

Now, it's a new day out of control
No luck for me, that's so typical
Changing the tune? well, I have no say
Maybe I'll be more lucky today

Chance of luck, I need you
How do I conceive you?

BRIDGE
But when I need you most
You never show your face
What do you want from me
So I can live under your grace?

I am a human, I am a man
In pleasure or in pain I will stand
Is there more to my life than just fate?
In this emptiness I will wait

Chance of luck, I need you
How do I conceive you?
