

Mad Caddies, B-Side

I know exactly where you've been,
But I don't feel you,
I know it's harder to give in,
But I don't hear you,
I feel a change, there's somethings in the air,
It's all around my head,
I know you try to put the blame on me,
I throw it back, instead...

So here we go again,
Kicking it with friends,
Burn another joint,
And get right to the point,
Falling on my own,
Got no place to go,
You wait for me outside,
Take you for a ride in my life,
On the b-side,

I know exactly where you've been,
But I don't feel you,
I know it's harder to give in,
But I don't hear you,
I'll never leave, this is the place for me,
A holiday from all,
Without a doubt,
I came from Monaco the only way, I know'

So here we go again,
Kicking it with friends,
Burn another joint,
And get right to the point,
Falling on my own,
Got no place to go,
You wait for me outside,
Take you for a ride in my life,
On the b-side,

Don't wait for me, I'll meet you there,
If I'm not with you I don't care,
When everything just goes my way,
And it's supposed to suck yeh,
But you just can't see'just can't see,
Go!

I know exactly where you've been,
And I don't feel you now.
