

Mad Marge And The Stonecutters, In The Name Of

Sugar shakin'
Money makin'
All in the name of love
Tear it down and wear it out and get for what you've come

Well I thought of longing you and I was just so short

But I'm annoyed to live you
But I'm not sure I have to please
Well I'm annoyed to live you baby
But that's fine with me

Well times are changin'
Hearts are breakin'
All in the name of greed
Pin it down and wear it out and get just what you need

Well I thought of longing you
When I'm afraid I always will

But I'm annoyed to live you
But I'm not sure I have to please
Well I'm annoyed to live you baby
But that's fine with me

But I'm annoyed to live you
But I'm not sure I have to please
Well I'm annoyed to live you baby
But that's fine with me

'Cause I'm tired
I'm living for you baby
And I knew it
I fucking blew it
I knew I would
I know I would
And now it's gone away

But I'm annoyed to live you
But I'm not sure I have to please
Well I'm annoyed to live you baby
But that's fine with me
