

Mad Marge And The Stonecutters, Man Without A

He stands alone
Waiting out all on his own
And it's just so sad
But what can he do
He's only a man

Well he's a man without a face
Left in the cold by a broken home
He's a man without a face
Well he's a man without a face

And he tries so hard
Holding on to anyones hand
And it's just so sad
But what can he do
He's only a man.

Well he's a man without a face
He's a man without a face
Well he's a man without a face

Just so sad
And It's just so sad

Well he's a man without a face
He's a man without a face
Well he's a man without a face

Well he's a man without a face
(Repeat)
