

Mad Marge And The Stonecutters, Shake

Lonley bones, feel so tough
Shut yo'mouth and shake your stuff
Wakin' up, out of your skin
Bone shake me with your boney grin
Now shake

Unsolved mystery
Get over here and shake with me
Count if off; one, two, three
Rattle those bones until they bleed
Shake

Hey you, bone shaker out of me
Little later
Shake 'em up, shake 'em down
Just rattle those bones for me

You got what I want
Seein' yours, made a mountain hot
Shake 'em up, shake 'em down
Just rattle those bones for me

I see you lyin' in your grave
Lookin' for a soul to shake
Tie me up like your dirty slave
I move my bones just the same
Shake

See there, I know you're there
Look at me with your evil glare
Squeeze me tight 'cause I like it rough
Baby I just can't get enough
Shake

Hey you, bone shaker out of me
Don't be a stranger
Shake 'em up, shake 'em down
Just rattle those bones for me

You got what I want
Seein' yours, made a mountain hot
Shake 'em up, shake 'em down
Just rattle those bones for me

I watch you sleep, I see you wake
The rise of the sun, it's time to quake
The things you do, I just can't take
Your rusty bones can never break

Shake
Shake
Shake
Shake
Shake
Shake
Well, just shake
Just fuckin' shake
