

Mad Marge And The Stonecutters, Strangers

Wrapped up in the hands of evil
I fail to see the good in people
Lies and deceits, you know,
They're makin' me feel so small
Yeah, yeah

And everywhere we go
We sing the same old song

Help, oh help me stranger
My very life's in danger
Help and I'll leave you alone

Cursed, I walked and left this place
I walked almost one hundred years
What can, what can you know
I still can't find a friend
Yeah, Yeah

Help, oh help me stranger
My very life's in danger
Help and I'll leave you alone
