

Mad Marge And The Stonecutters, Watching You

I know you're watching me
You know that I do.
But baby it's okay
Cause I'm watching you, too.

I can see you through my window
There's no need to fright.
Watching you
Watching you
All alone tonight.
I'll be dreaming of your kisses
When I sleep so tight.
Watching you
Watching you
All alone tonight.

I know you see the face
All the things that I do.
But baby it's okay
Cause I see you, too.

I can see you through my window
There's no need to fright.
Watching you
Watching you
All alone tonight.
I'll be dreaming of your kisses
When I sleep so tight.
Watching you
Watching you
All alone tonight.

(solo)

I can see you through my window
There's no need to fright.
Watching you
Watching you
All alone tonight.
I'll be dreaming of your kisses
When I sleep so tight.
Watching you
Watching you
All alone tonight.
