

Mad Sin, Scarred Ole' Heart

buried in the graveyard of my scarred ole' heart my dear this one's for you and all the things you do you better stop your well worn phrases right now see, i'm running around this planet the devil got me branded and i burned out on every stage so far a few steps ahead from complaining and disaster a few steps ahead and i'm ready to get faster a few steps ahead from your day by day the same old shit i'm dying for another trip buried in the graveyard of my scarred ole' heart i'm under suspicion that i still care for you but this ain't no zombie movie and my heart ain't no pet cemetery you're just another number on my list of done mistakes you're past.you're gone.you're life is just a fake
