

Madball, Across Your Face

In your eyes we've always
Been the bad guys
Droppin' false knowledge
You're just full of lies
You've misled our youth
Distracting them with fantasy
But your plan backfired
Blewout into reality
I've taken on losers
Like you in my past
So why should I stoop
To your sorry ass
I thought you were my friend
But you showed me disgrace
I'll slap you with reality across your face
