

Madball, Renegades

You cant stop the renegades

No

Those hillbilly ass kids who always have something to say t

They cant be silenced

Never

Even if were lock away another is born

Today, tomorrow, today, right now

Rise up Ill tell them all to rise up

Those who want to be strong come and be herd

What do we say to the culprit, the enablers, disbelievers feel the shame

Today, tomorrow, today, no more

I dont justify my bad behavior but do you patronize me now

My strengths my instincts

Is what got me here I learned nothing from you

My pain (pain) rage (rage) fear (fear) you never bothered to asked where it came from

Expose your system now

I am the renegade

Watch

As I break you down

We are the renegades

Watch

As we break you, break you down

You thought Id never live to see this day

Right

Your addiction for me will stand on Q

Im sorry I let you down, but you failed us all and you neglect,

It left us exposed to the pain, the sorrow, the shame

It follows us today, tomorrow

But no more

I never justify my bad behavior but do you patronize me now

My strengths my instincts

Is what got me here I learned nothing from you

My pain (pain) rage (rage) fear (fear) you never bothered to asked where it came from

Expose your system, show your face now

I am the renegade (I am the renegade)

You are the renegade (we are the renegades)
