Madder Mortem, Undertow

Something's changing I feel I see Tearing me to dust Stillborn laughter My master is here

How do I know? Undertow tells me so Down I go

Hard-eyed mirrors I look I see Longing to be air Long time missing, but waiting around

How do I know? Undertow tells me so

I'm lethal
So stay forever under arms
When only fear holds you together
You'll come dancing
Leave them all

Starving proudly
I sleep
I win
Gone with the wind
Fairyland waiting
If I'm small enough, I'll go in

How do I know? Undertow tells me so
