

Made Of Hate, Fallout

The Wave of Death has just crossed the world
Burning whole flash into the dust
The end has just begun
Children cry prepared to die
There's no hope for them
Machines have gone wild
They're killing innocents...
Fallout has just begun
Not too many have survived
Thanks to fate I'm one of them
Getting tougher still I'm stand
Mutants are all over there
People are wrecked and gone insane
It's a deadly fight for a sec of life
I see you getting out of the darkness
Frightened, weak and lost
Will you take my helpful hand
Or will you perish in a fight?
