

Magazine, Definitive Gaze

I've got this bird's eye view and it's in my brain
clarity has reared
its ugly head again
so this is real life
you're telling me
and everything is where it ought to be

I like your nerve
I like watching you but I don't watch what I'm doing got better things to do
so this is real life
you're telling me
now I'm lost in shock
your face fits perfectly
