

Maggie Reilly, Replay

Somewhere there in the back of my mind is a memory
I can see if I only close my eyes
Like a picture show long ago, I'm there in a reverie
Like a child my imagination flies
Illusion so clear
Feels like your heat

Lay that night when the stars ignite in the galaxy
I'm laying here awake
And then I go right back to the blue and black of the jealousy
I remember, I remember my mistakes
Like a refrain
It's called in my brain

Run it back I replay
Roll it back I replay
Play it back
That moment in time

Run it back I replay
Roll it back I replay
Play it back
That seen in my mind

Run it back
Roll it back

I can see your face, but I can't embrace the photograph
And it's crazy to pretend
And when I had my choice
And I heard my voice saying 'au revoir'
I was certain, now it's hard to comprehend
Knowing inside
I can't turn the time

Run it back I replay
Roll it back I replay
Play it back
That moment in time

Here in my mind
It's stripped from my heart
My world falls apart

Run it back
As my world falls
Roll it back
Falls

That moment in time
That seen in my mind
It's stripped from my heart
My world falls apart
That moment in time
Here in my mind
It's stripped from my heart
I reply, I reply
