

Maggie Reilly, Save It For A Rainy Day

Well, he's a kind of pretty
Drives a big car too
When he holds me in his arms
I don't know what to do

He's got everything he needs
What does he need me for?
A crazy fool
Comin' back for more

I know he's no good
Can't leave but I know I should
Everybody says: "Watch that boy.
He'll break your heart like it was a toy."

You'd better save it
Save it for a rainy day
And you'd better save it
Save it for a rainy day

Well, I'd leave in a minute
If I only could
But he touches me
And it feels so good

My heart's in his hands
This is sure a mess
No way say no
When he says: "Yes, oh, yes"

Take me and shake me
Tell me this ain't a dream
Everybody says: "Watch that boy.
He'll break your heart like it was a toy."

You'd better save it
Save it for a rainy day
And you'd better save it
Save it for a rainy day
