

Magic Dirt, Drunk For You

Oh here I go again
Into oblivion
What's that you said just then
You know I can't just be your friend
Oh here we go again
Back to the start again
What's that you said just then
You know I can't just be your friend
You know it's not for you to mend
You know it's not for me to pretend Every Saturday I sway when I drink your face away
Oh here I go again
I thought of you just then I got a burning Underneath my skin
Every Saturday I sway when I drink your
face away
Don't you want it Don't you get it Don't you remember I'm getting drunk for you 'cos I don't know what else to do I'm walking into walls just to be where you are too
I'm getting drunk for you 'cos I don't know what else to do I'm walking into walls 'cos I'm feeling like a fool
