

Maire Brennan, Our World

Our world searching our heart
The miracles of life remembers your name
The beauty of Your face
Whispers the same
A treasure of love
Sent from above
Stay close to me

Our world searching our heart
Our world keeps falling apart
Our hearts searching for answers
Pathways to see
Wanting the angels
Walking with me

Our world searching our heart
A message of great hope
A vision to find
The wonders of your ways
gentle and kind
As morning breaks
Our dreams will awake
Stay close to me

Our world searching our heart
Our world keeps falling apart
Our hearts searching for answers
Pathways to see
Wanting the angels
Walking with me
