

Make Up Your Mind, Make Up Is Lies

make up baby yeah puts you right between the eyes with a feeling that you finally realize the truth is then and there you're living out a lie you put your fist in the air and you shout make up is a lie let's go

make up is lies

make up is another word for goodly skies
if you're sewed on to your skin your skin needs shine to die make up is the word when you need to be in rehab when they knew they'd land in new found land yeah weren't they glad
