

Maktub, Blown Away

i can't believe the sound a movement from underground god's dealt a heavy blow think he's stealing the show blown away am i, blown away blown away

blown away

it scares me to know your thoughts you think like a robot I'm glad that you seem amused cause i want you to know the truth like a man who's dying

blown away ... and i hear them say

you'll never become the past and the days to come you give me the right to live inside it all I'm more than you'll ever know I'm a different breed you'll find me in the in between I'm more than you'll ever know I'm more than you'll ever see I'm more than you'll dare to dream explaining your lust for inadequacy

i can't believe the sound ...
