There's no me without you here around

Following our unknown dreams closely

Where are this door which leads through walls We don't know no more

So we'll close eyes and fantasize about us again

Now take my hand Let's go somewhere always... every...day

Tomorrow after sleepless night we'll crave

Whispering our secret names lonely

So we'll close eyes and fantasize about us again

Now take my hand Let's go somewhere always... every...day

Who am I without you here around
