

Malibu Stacy, Morning Trouble (In A Coffee Cup)

Oh I know, the biggest mistake I've ever made
Was just to let her go-oh painting Amsterdam
Oh I swear, the biggest mistake I've ever made
Was just to let her go there without any underwear

She can't take back her kiss and sweat
And the call me back again tomorrows
I'm digging holes when she's not there
They call that innocence, I call it ball

Oh I know, the biggest mistake I've ever made
Was just to let her know-oh she was waiting for her man
Oh, I swear she's only got herself to blame
And I do care about the funky things she said

She can't take back her kiss and sweat
And the call me back again tomorrows
I'm digging holes when she's not there
They call that innocence, I call it ball

Down by the riverside
There's a sleeper on the throne
He's digging holes at midnight
See the sweat drip out of every bone

Can you spell his name ?
Can you spell his name ?

She can't take back her kiss and sweat
And the call me back again tomorrows
I'm digging holes when she's not there
They call that innocence, I call it ball
