

Man, Hard Way To Die

Everybody said he was crazy, no-one gave the poor boy a chance
Anywhere he looked it was hazy, no-one ever asked him to dance
I can't give my love to you
I can't give my love to you
I don't want you,
I don't need nobody like you

Then one day he just disappeared, everybody said they were glad
Then they found his car it was burning, someone saw him running like mad
I can't give my love to you
I can't give my love to you
I don't want you,
I don't need nobody like you

Three days later he was found floating, with a head too shattered to think
Everybody said they were sorry, but it didn't mean anything
I can't give my love to you
I can't give my love to you
I don't want you,
I don't need nobody like you
