Mandee, Over My Head (ft. Thomas Daniel)

I should have known it come to this I should have known it I should have known it Why did I ever let you in? I couldn't hold it Couldn't control it

I thought this was something more for you something more But you Trying all cry out Did you?

Coz you've got me I give my heart away I'm in

And I cannot escape

No, I cannot escape You've got me On and on Over my head

So tell my how it's happen now? When did it started? Where did your heart beat? Why all it tumbling down You left me,
