

Mando Diao, High Heels

Ohh you got me shaking to that moan you made last night Ohh my body's aching from that naked summer light Ohh my mind's setting you on It's just a game we play High heels have got me falling down on
my knees
High heels have got me falling down on
my knees
High heels have got me falling down on
my knees
Ohh the button's pushed and I am ready for the purple fall Ohh Im all addicted to the sound of a certain call Ohh my mind's melting you
Ohh I'm coming all the way
High heels have got me falling down on
my knees
High heels have got me falling down on
my knees
High heels have got me falling down on
my knees
So, so long ago since felt shivers down my spine
You, I need your sweat as much as you need mine
Ohh my mind's melting you
High heels have got me falling down on
my knees
High heels have got me falling down on
my knees
High heels have got me falling down on
my knees
