

Mando Diao, San Francisco Bay

I'm going down as crazy
getting cream from a man in leather
and if that ain't high enough what can I do?
He told me son you'd better try this turns you on while you're asleep
but if that ain't well enough I'll give you more
And I

I opened my mind today
from New York City down to San Fransisco Bay Bay I'm going down as crazy
getting cream from a man in leather
but if that ain't high enough what can I do?(yeah)
I'm seeing red and blue lights seeing trains from another planet
but if that ain't weird enough what can I do?
And I ain't going down like that so I ain't going down like that I'm just breathing until the air gets fresh again.

And I
I'm sending my mind today from New York City down to San Fransisco Bay
(yeah yeah yeah)
I'm seeing red and blue lights seeing trains from another planet
but i that ain't weird enough what can I do?
(yeah yeah yeah)
