

Mando Diao, SWEET WET DREAMS

I'm alone, together with sweet wet dreams
Don't let go never lose it, just holding on to sweet dreams
You were the one to open up me
Long time ago, so far away
Uuh, no I don't want to get down on my knees
I'm letting my mind just drift away

I'm alone, together with sweet wet dreams
Don't let go never lose it, just holding on to wet dreams
Left you because you came too close to me
I just couldn't take the blame you gave
But I can't forget how we held each other up
I want you but only for your style

I'm alone, together with sweet wet dreams
I'm alone, together with sweet sweet dreams

I'm alone, here I stand, just holding on to sweet dreams
Don't let go never lose it, just holding on to wet dreams

You and me, babe, all alone, in a cold as room far away
We can make it together but would please not roll
Too alone to deny it
Ohh wet dreams
Holding on to the sweet wet dreams
