

Mandy Barnett, I'll Just Pretend

(Kostas/Richard Bennett)

Somewhere between the here and now
Heartaches begin
I'll Just Pretend

You'll never know the way I feel
We've reached the end
I'll Just Pretend

Pretending you still love me
The way you used to do
Pretending that the promises
You made will still come true
They still come true
And if by chance we meet again
We'll smile and then
I'll Just Pretend
Believing don't come easy
Pretending it's not true
I can't convince this heart of mine
That you're pretending too
That you're pretending too

And if by chance we meet again
We'll smile and then
I'll Just Pretend
We'll smile and then
I'll Just Pretend
