

Mandy Moore, Hey

C'mon!
One! Two!
One, Two, Three, Four!

Verse:

It was a couple of years ago
I was sitting beside my window
And never will make the same mistake
'Cause that's when he walked on by
For almost a year, I followed
And I don't regret a single day

Bridge:

And then he changed
And proceeded to tear from me
Every inch of soul, you see
And he's kept it to this day

Chorus:

And I turn,
Everytime
I find a piece of him in corners of my mind
So I washed it all away

And time, it took me time
But I have left those memories back and far behind
He called me yesterday
Just to say hey!

Verse:

I was the last to know
Such an infatuation
That I can say with certainty

Bridge:

And then he changed
And proceeded to tear from me
Every inch of soul, you see
And he's kept it to this day

Chorus:

And I turn,
Everytime
I find a piece of him in corners of my mind
So I washed it all away

And time, it took me time
But I have left those memories back and far behind
He called me yesterday
Just to say hey!

Verse:

It took me a lifetime to forget you, but I did
I never want to see your face or speak your name again

Chorus:

And I turn,
Everytime
I find a piece of him in corners of my mind
So I washed it all away

And time, it took me time
But I have left those memories back and far behind
He called me yesterday
Just to say hey!
