Manowar, House Of Death

Blood and thunder mix with rain Into the kingdom of darkness again Lightning flash and body in flame All shall kneel at the sound of my name My path is set, I live with no regret I'm sworn to kill, never to forget

[Chorus:]
No road back, I never will return
Into the fire of hell I will burn
And die, die, die into the house of death
And die, die, die into the fire of hell

Army of the heavens, my army waits in hell To battle on the earth, for all the souls who fell I will not go onto my death alone Seven gates to pass until I reach my home Across the bridge of death, beyond the gates of light Into the heart of darkness, into the black of night

[Chorus]

Into the darkness I command my soul Never shall I repent, never shall I be saved I go into the house of death Before my last breath my enemies all shall die

Die, die, die into the house of death Die, die, die into the fire of hell
