Mansun, The Greatest Pain

The greatest pain that I have felt
Is hidden deep within myself
I cannot eat, I cannot sleep
There's something deep inside of me

So please, I wish you all the best
So please, get out my fking
I kicked the habit
Stay where you tell me to stay
I kick the habit
And if you've got to have me I can blame you when I fail

Fk you and all the things you do
By hook or crook it's through for you
At least I try to jump in fire
And if I burn at least I tried

So please, don't say that I have failed
So please, there's glory in the way

I know you don't respect me
Your arrogance will bleed
Humility is my achievement
Your scared of me and what I mean
