

Marc Anthony, Walk Away

It's over now, gotta face it one last time we'll never make it work
Heaven knows we've tried livin' this lie, holdin' on for so long no it won't be easy
But it's time to be strong
Walk away, walk away
Don't you wait a minute longer
Walk away from the love we know is wrong
Walk away, walk away
Do it now, while I can find the strength to say "Leave me now" before my heart won't let
You and I never wanted it to end
We'll just have to find a way to start livin' again
Oh love of my life how do I let you go?
Leave behind the memories the forever that we'll never know
Walk away...
We know we can't go on
We know the reason why
But that don't make it any easier
When it comes to saying goodbye
Walk away...
