

Marc Bolan, Woodland Bop

""Woodland Bop""

(written by Marc Bolan)

Everybody's doin' the woodland bop
Once you started you'll find it hard to stop
Everybody's doin' the woodland bop

In the hallowed morning see her in the moon-white
Streaking across the sky
In the evening dusk dunes see her like a sun bird
Streaking across the sky

Everybody's doin' the woodland bop
Once you started you'll find it hard to stop
Everybody's doin' the woodland bop

In the hallowed morning see her in the moon-white
Streaking across the sky
In the evening dusk dunes see her like a sun bird
Streaking across the sky

Doo-doo-da-da-da ...

In the hallowed morning see her in the moon-white
Streaking across the sky
In the evening dusk dunes see her like a sun bird
Streaking across the sky

Everybody's doin' the woodland bop
Once you started you'll find it hard to stop
Everybody's doin' the woodland bop
