

Marcel, Tennessee

I left the west coast watched the palm trees, waive goodbye,
It was a hard drive had to say goodbye to you,
I stopped for some coca-cola and some corn nuts too,
I thought about turning back, I already missed you,

If you need me, burn it up,
Bend the rules leave right away,
If you need me take a four lane,
Headed my way,
Take a bus, take a plane,
Take a car, take a train,
Take a bike, hitch a ride, you decide,
If you need me you know where I'll be,
In Tennessee

Going through my boxes found a photograph,
Where you're sittin' on a mule in Mexico,
Picture perfect point view,
And when a postcard dropped from the book
You gave me on my birthday it hit me baby

If you need me, burn it up,
Bend the rules leave right away,
If you need me take a four lane,
Headed my way,
Take a bus, take a plane,
Take a car, take a train,
Take a bike, hitch a ride, you decide,
If you need me you know where I'll be,
In Tennessee

If you need me leave L.A.
We'll take it day by day,
All alone, here I am,
By the phone, understand,
It's not too late,
What are you waiting for,
If you need me, you know where I'll be,
In Tennessee

It's a Sunday morning, lying awake,
It's just another lonely day,
I lie in bed and wonder,
How long it's gonna take
Then I think to myself,
Will I ever get a break,
Did I make a big mistake,

Well I'll light a fire,
I'll draw the bubble bath,
Hey you do the math,
It's just me and I'm without you,
What else could I do.....

If you need me, burn it up,
Bend the rules leave right away,
If you need me take a four lane,
Headed my way,
Take a bus, take a plane,
Take a car, take a train,
Take a bike, hitch a ride, you decide,
If you need me you know where I'll be,
In Tennessee
