

Marcela, Not The Same

Don't go,
Words that echoed through our four walls.
Forever, you swore.

So odd,
The room once warm, now cold, I feel lost,
As you walked out that door.

Oh no, we've been here before,
When it rains, it pours.
God, I only wish there was a way.
Lying on the floor,
Got no strength, no more.
Now I see that we're like night and day.

We are not the same,
I give it all I got.
You run away from real love,
Stop breaking my heart.
Better man up, man up.

You will never change,
You left me in the dark.
Made me beg, made me feel low.
Now I know what you are,
And I'm better, better.
We are not the same.

It's your loss,
You chose to break us, you played your part.
How selfish you are?

And I never wanna
Feel the way I felt before you leaving.
Asking you to stay, I stopped believing.
I'm done with you,
Now I know it all!

We are not the same,
I give it all I got.
You run away from real love,
Stop breaking my heart.
Better man up, man up.

You will never change,
You left me in the dark.
Made me beg, made me feel low.
Now I know what you are,
And I'm better, better.
We are not the same.

We are not the same, no

Oh no, we've been here before,
When it rains, it pours.
God, I only wish there was a way.
Lying on the floor,
Got no strength, no more.
Now I see that we're like night and day.

We are not the same,
I give it all I got.
You run away from real love,
Stop breaking my heart.

Better man up, man up.

You will never change,
You left me in the dark.
Made me beg, made me feel low.
Now I know what you are,
And I'm better, better.
We are not the same, no.

We are not the same.
We are not the same, no.
You'll never change.
We are not the same.
