

Marcy Playground, Radio

Shaking like a dog shitting razor blades waking up next to nothing
after dreaming of you and me
I'm waking up all alone,
waking up so relieved

While youre taking your time with apologies I'm making my plans for revenge red eyes on orange horizons
If Columbus was wrong I just fell off the edge
I just fell off the edge

Taking your own life with boredom I'm taking my own life with wine it helps you to rule out the sorrow it helps me to empty my mind

Making the most of a bad time I'm smoking my brains from my head Leaving the coal collar, the kettle black with orange and red This kettle's seeing red

I've got a big fat fking moan to pick with you my darling
In case you haven't heard I'm sick
I'm tired of trying
I wish you would take my radio to bathe with you plugged in and ready to fall

Shaking like a dog shitting razor blades
after dreaming of you and me
I'm waking up all alone,
waking up so relieved

While youre taking your time with apologies
I'm planning out my revenge
red eyes on orange horizons
If Columbus was wrong I just fade off the edge
I just fade off the edge I'm seeing red

I've got a big fat fking moan to pick
with you my darling
In case you haven't heard I'm sick
I'm tired of trying
plugged in and ready to fall x4
