

Marcy Playground, The Devil's Song

Some cats they know how to fight
Some cats run
I'm a thousand generations ahead of them
Cool as they come

See all my suits are Calvin Klein
My lucky number: 69
I got all the things I need
It's the nature of my breed

I'm independent
Smooth and confident
Always in command
With a graceful element
A taste for compliment
Do you know who I am?

Look up, look down, watch out, the tiger's on the town tonight
I'm a deadly handsome man
Look up, look down, watch out, the tiger's on the town tonight
I'm the lion in the lamb

Everywhere I go I make a scene
The ladies love to stroke me, yeah
Pimped out and lazy in my limousine
Oh, come on here sweetie
Everything I say - like Socrates
Most people love to quote me
My real name is Mephistopheles
But you can call me baby

See all my suits are Calvin Klein
My lucky number: 69
I got all the things I need
It's the nature of my breed

I'm independent
Smooth and confident
Always in command
