

Marduk, Holy Inquisition

You all confessed your sins - Die
Your hearts are imprisoned by sin
If you don't want to see your sin
It must be shown to you
Trial by water
Your hearts are black with sin
It's our task to free them
Death for death, death for mercy
In this place death is mercy
Confessions under torture
Burning at the stake
In the name
Of Jesus fucking Christ
You shall rest by the dead
But you will still be alive
