

Marduk, The Sun Turns Black As Night

On my knees i pray for the darkest day
And I will be the one to go your way
Earth is filled with sorrow that will soon be unleashed
Powers of the Dark see their reign increase
Take my body and soul
Into the Dark
Sorrow I salute you
Pain my biggest joy
Death to those who fail me
Death I shall employ
Blood for the king
Murder we sing
Bring us from the light
To the temple of burning night
