

Maria Arredondo, Brief and Beautiful

ooooh

Only had a little taste but i remember how it felt and all the phonecalls late at night though we tried, we couldn't make it right When the seasons changed everything got colder
everyone could hear, our illusion crush it was all we had

[chorus]

so every minute that i've spend with you like the winter, is bringing the blues you and i were like the spring brief and beautiful
when we knew we had to let it go and our love turned in to snow we never had a chance to begin
brief and beautiful

so....

so....

[verse]

when flowers bloom in may i go back to yesterday
when i woke up next to you i would bring it all back if i could make it good or bad
i know it is too late
so i'm movin`on
but i won't forget
all that is unsaid

[chorus]

it was so short(?)
it was so sweet
like every good thing
it's not yours to keep oh, things fades away
and now its gone

[chorus]x2
