

Mariana Popova, Let Me Cry (Eurovision 2006)

Honey, honey, honey, honey
Honey, honey, honey, honey
Please let me cry, just let me cry
Told you I was aware
I had feelings to share with you
Somethings over for good -
Love, passion, cheerful mood, the truth
Lets say goodbye
And never back again, let me cry
I wanted you, you wanted to lie
I knew that it would happen this way
Learning how to obey
Lost my heart and my face, my soul
Lets say goodbye
And never back again, let me cry
I wanted you, you wanted to lie
I knew that it would happen this way
Lets say goodbye
And never back again, let me cry
I wanted you, you wanted to lie
I knew that it would happen this way
