Mariana Popova, Let Me Cry (Eurovision 2006)

Honey, honey, honey Honey, honey, honey Please let me cry, just let me cry Told you I was aware I had feelings to share with you Somethings over for good -Love, passion, cheerful mood, the truth Lets say goodbye And never back again, let me cry I wanted you, you wanted to lie I knew that it would happen this way Learning how to obey Lost my heart and my face, my soul Lets say goodbye And never back again, let me cry I wanted you, you wanted to lie I knew that it would happen this way Lets say goodbye And never back again, let me cry I wanted you, you wanted to lie I knew that it would happen this way
