

Marianne Faithfull, I'd Like To Dial Your Number

I'd like to dial your number again
But I don't remember it so well.
I'd like to see you again
'cause I don't remember when

I said I wouldn't see you again
Been so long I don't remember when.

I'd like to kiss you one more time
Because I feel it might be different now.
I'd like to love you one more time
Because the last respect was mine.

Although I didn't have the time
Been so long just thought one more time.

So I'd like to dial your number again,
Seems that I remember it so well.
I'd like to see you again
'cause I don't remember when

I said I wouldn't see you again
Been so long, can you tell me when?
