

Marianne Faithfull, Time

Time to light a spark,
Time to go insane.
Time to leave your mark,
Time for me to change.

Time to pick and choose
Or to see old friends.
Time to win or lose
Or to make amends.

But I want to know you
And I want to touch your hand.
And I want to love you,
Try and hear me, understand.

You can lose your way
And I'll feel the same.
You can go or stay,
I won't forget your name.

But I want to know you
And I want to touch your hand.
And I want to love you,
Try and hear me, understand.

And in time I will know you,
In time I will hold your hand.
In time you will love me
And in time we both will understand.

In time
In time
In time.

In time
In time
In time.
