Marillion, Most Toys

But he who dies with the most toys... is still dead He who dies with the most toys... is still dead.

You have to be cool You have to be hip You have to be chic You have to be rich You have to be young Whatever that is You have to listen to what's in and what's happenin'

But He who dies with the most toys... is still dead.

You have to keep up Take the right drugs Know when to be cagey Know when to shut up You have to talk fast Know who to thank Drive the right car to the right bank

But He who dies with the most toys... is still dead.

Poison your life As you turn the knife

He who dies with the most toys... is still dead.
