

Marion Raven, Six Feet Under

Six feet under, under my skin
There's a battle I know I can't win
You invade me and I surrender
Yeah
That's what I hate about you

Six feet under, under my skin
There is where your story begins
You were wanting, I was mistaken
Yeah

You came to me with words unspoken
I can't deny it, that I knew my glass would end up broken
(and that's how you got me)
I blame myself for being stupid
But I can't help it, yet I'm eating right out of your hand
That's what I hate about you

Hey, hey.

It's not that hard, just walk away
There's gotta be a different meaning

You came to me with words unspoken
I can't deny it, that I knew my glass would end up broken
(and that's how you got me)
I blame myself for being stupid
(and that's how you got me)
Now's the time for my confession
Cause I can't take it, that you always be and always will be Under my skin
