

Marion, Strangers

And now you've faced it, ran away
Tried it all and deserved it
And now the places you love are
The places I hate to go
Lost in music that can send
You to sleep
She's been lonely like you
Wouldn't believe
Wrapped up the games to play
Now she drinks all day
But she's fine, she's fine
She's fine, she's fine
Your no stranger
To all of us here
Who are not there anymore
And then you wonder
Why all of your days
Are blue
Now she spends the weekends
Making her minds bend and reveal all
And now the drunken love
Is the only love that she knows
Lost in a time-warp, more
Surreal than or Eddie
She's more lonely than you could
Have believed
Sat in the night and day
Now she's drinking again
But she's fine, 'cause she's mine
she's mine she's mine
Your no stranger
To all of us here
Who are not there anymore
And then you wonder
Why all of your days
Are blue
I'm turning away now
I feel it, its coming
But you know we need each other
More than we need ourselves
She's turning away now
Just cruising extremely boring
But she knows we need each other
More than we need ourselves
Your no stranger
To all of us here
Because you know we need each other
More than we need ourselves
Your no stranger
To all of us here
Because you need know we need each other
More than we need ourselves
Your no stranger
And there's none of it here
Because you need we need each other
More than we need ourselves
Your no stranger
Because you need know we need each other
More than we need ourselves
Ooh ooh ooh
Because you know we need each other
More than we need ourselves
Because you need know we need

Each other more than we Need ourselves
