

Marit Larsen, I've Heard Your Love Songs

I could tell you didn't have a clue
From the moment I laid eyes on you
Above the troubled water was a bridge as frail could be
I know just how it feels
Ooh I've heard your love songs
All your love songs
And I say just wait and see
For when I hear your love songs
Your bittersweet old ones
I keep thinking if he would just come with me
I would be as soft as a summer breeze
Let your troubles go and rest with me
And I will mend the pieces that are left for me to find
Here in these arms of mine
Ooh I've heard your love songs
All your love songs
And I say just wait and see
For when I hear your love songs
Your bittersweet old ones
I keep thinking if he would just come with me
Ooh I've heard your love songs
All your love songs
And I say just wait and see
For when I hear your love songs
Your bittersweet old ones
I keep thinking if he would just come with me
(I've heard your love songs
All your love songs)
And I'm waiting patiently
For when I hear your love songs
Your bittersweet old ones
I keep thinking if he would just come with me...
