

Marit Larsen, Recent Illusion (Single)

How hard can it be to
Have an to keep what everyone has?
Out walking the street
The beautiful meet
They're starting to laugh

I know too much
I've seen to much
I crave too much
I'm out of touch

My recent illusion
Blurred out my conclusion
There's no-one for me
I can't do it right
I can't sleep at night
He's all that I see

But I want too much
Demand too much
I crave too much
I'm out of touch

I aim high, you aim low
Oh, ain't that just the way it goes?
I see sparks, you see none
Had I only quit while it was fun

But I seek too much
I try too much
Think I cry too much
I've lost my touch

I think I've lost my touch
But it was fun
