

Mark Eitzel, Live Or Die

When the truth is all you have
You live a sham of rain and rust
Truth is a shine in your eye
No one cares
No one cares if I live or die

Only expect time to run out
A question mark - demand no more
It's enough just to catch your eye
No one cares
No one cares if I live or die

Not even murder is so cold
What makes me always turn away?
I gotta find a different alibi
No one cares
No one cares if I live or die

There's no such thing as the truth
Only wall that chains and locks
And questions that have no reply
